ON SCREEN TEXT:       HOW TO CLEAN:
                              THE BATHTUB

A foot steps out of a bathtub onto a blue bath mat. Water drips from the foot onto the mat. Another foot steps out. The feet wipe water off on the mat

FEMALE NARRATOR: Soaking in the tub is better than cleaning it.

Water and soap bubbles drain in the bottom of a bathtub.

NARRATOR: But mildew thrives here, so it's important to clean it regularly.

A variety of cleaning products including a bottle of Scrubbing Bubbles Foaming Bathroom Cleaner appears on-screen. The woman's hand places a blue ring beside the products.

Soap, shampoo, conditioner, and a yellow rubber duck sit on a corner ledge of a bathtub. The items pop away.

NARRATOR: First, remove everything in the shower--bottles, soaps, rubber duckies, all of it.

The woman's hand removes a tiny sailboat away from the bathtub drain.

                              SHOWER CURTAIN

NARRATOR: Flip the shower curtain over the bar, so it's out of the way.

The woman places a plastic bag over the showerhead. The scene goes dark, then light again, indicating a day's passing. The bag disappears, revealing a shining silver showerhead.

ON SCREEN TEXT:      CLEAR
                                 YOUR HEAD

NARRATOR: Soak the showerhead overnight in a plastic bag filled with white vinegar.

The woman sprays a bottle of Scrubbing Bubbles Foaming Bathroom Cleaner over the bathtub.

ON SCREEN TEXT:      SPRAY IT

NARRATOR: Use foaming shower cleaner with a wide spray. Don't be skimpy. You want grime to really soak.

A close-up reveals two white graphic lines moving widely apart as the cleaner is sprayed.

The woman's hand scrubs the tub with a yellow sponge. She scrubs from the back of the tub towards the drain.

ON SCREEN TEXT:      SCRUB A TUB-TUB

NARRATOR: With the soft side of a sponge, scrub from the back of tub towards the drain.

The showerhead is turned on and sprays directly onto the camera. The shot becomes steamed and blurry.

NARRATOR: Rinse it down with hot water.

ON SCREEN TEXT:      HOT RINSE

ON SCREEN TEXT:      EASY SQUEEGEE

NARRATOR: When walls are completely dry, mold and mildew stains have no place to settle.

The woman's hand drags a squeegee over a white tiled wall.

The woman's hand grabs a blue towel from a white basket. She wipes the bathtub with the towel.

NARRATOR: If you don't have a squeegee, a towel or a rag will do.

The woman opens the door and exits the bathroom.

NARRATOR: We have your back in the bathroom. Check out our other videos and subscribe to our channel for more helpful cleaning tips and ideas.

The scene fades and four boxes appear on-screen with various cleaning scenes. The Scrubbing Bubbles logo, Facebook logo, and Twitter logo appear at the bottom of the screen.
